

Warnings

WARNING: Changes or modifications to this unit not expressly approved by the party responsible for compliance could void the user's authority to operate the equipment.

NOTE: This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class B digital device, pursuant to Part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation. This equipment generates, uses, and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation. If this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
 - Increase the separation between the equipment and receiver.
 - Connect the equipment into an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the receiver is connected.
 - Consult the dealer or an experienced radio/TV technician for help.

Connecting to an iPad

1. Adjust the Power switch on the Bluetooth Keyboard to the “ON” position.
2. Open the “Settings” on your iPad.
3. Navigate to “General” then “Bluetooth” in the Settings on your iPad.

4. Turn the Bluetooth “ON”.
5. Press the Pairing button on the back of the Bluetooth Keyboard.
6. On the iPad, touch the name of the Bluetooth Keyboard when it appears on the “Devices” list.

7. If this is your first time connecting this Bluetooth Keyboard to this iPad, the iPad will instruct you to type in a four digit code on the Bluetooth Keyboard and press enter or return.
8. Now that the Bluetooth Keyboard is connected, you can use it to wirelessly type on the iPad.

Connecting to an Apple Computer

Make sure that your computer has Bluetooth

Make sure that your computer has Bluetooth built-in or that a compatible Bluetooth adapter is connected. Open System Preferences (from the Apple menu, choose System Preferences), then choose Bluetooth from the View menu.

Turn on Bluetooth

In Bluetooth preferences, select the “On” checkbox (for earlier Mac OS X versions, click the Settings tab, then click Bluetooth Power: On). Make sure that you also enable Bluetooth on your device, too; refer to your device’s documentation for instructions. If you want your Mac to be discoverable, select that option as well.

Set up a new device

To set up a Bluetooth device, click “Set Up New Device” (in earlier Mac OS X versions, click the Devices tab in Bluetooth, then click “Set Up New Device”). Follow the onscreen instructions to set up your device.

Connecting to a Windows Computer

1. COMPUTER: Open Bluetooth Devices on the Windows computer, and then click Add.
 2. BLUETOOTH KEYBOARD: Press the Pairing button on the bottom of the Bluetooth Keyboard.
 3. COMPUTER: Select the check box, and then click Next.
 4. COMPUTER: Click Choose a passkey for me, and then click Next.
 5. BLUETOOTH KEYBOARD: Within 30 seconds, type the provided passkey and press ENTER key using your Bluetooth keyboard.
 6. Do not use the keyboard number pad to enter the passkey.
